OBITUARY - JAMES RYLAND

James Ryland was born in eastern Ohio March 31, 1820 and died at his home in Allen township, Noble County, Indiana, July 24, 1902, aged 82 years, 3 months and 23 days. His father died when he was four years old, leaving his mother in poor circumstances an unable to give him any education, his total schooling consisting of thirty days. He educated himself later sufficiently to read the Bible, which was his only book. He often spoke of his grandmother who taught him when a child to nightly kneel at her side and pray. The descent of his grandmother is unknown but his grandfather was a German. H was married at the age of twenty-one to Charlotte Bond (who yet survives) in Portage, now Summit, County, Ohio.

Six children were born to this union, five sons and one daughter, of whom four sons survive him. He emigrated to the wilds of Noble County, Indiana in October 1847, and settled and remained on the same farm until his decease. At the age of eighteen he unite with the Methodist Episcopal Church, which relationship he never severed. He commenced life with no help but his own energy and industry. He succeeded well, educated his children, left them a legacy of sterling honesty, integrity and honor. His wo was always as good as his bond. No one ever heard him profane or falsify. Among his many prominent characteristics his humaneness was striking. He would never turn anyo away from his home hungry or in need of a resting place. He has been known to enterta strangers overnight and then to remain up all night in order to guard his home from bein plundered. If he found a tramp in an outbuilding he would bring him in and entertain hi He would never willingly permit a stranger to depart on Sunday. Were any of his neighbors in need at any time, they would find his best at their service. Another characteristic was his scrupulousness. He was close in his dealings, but exact and hones On one occasion a merchant took his word as to the number of bushels in a load of corn and was surprised later to receive money which a subsequent measurement of his wagon by Mr. Ryland showed to be due. This was the man. His departing leaves the world poorer, but his character abides a true inspiration and blessing.

The funeral was held at Mount Pleasant church on Saturday afternoon, July 26. It was conducted by the Rev. M. M. Magor, of Kendallville M.E. church, assisted by the Lutheran church choir. The interment was at Mount Pleasant.

held in Fort Wayne this year. For more than six weeks the teams of the two societies have been in active training for the event and while records are not given out, it is understood that some of the men have shown surprising form.

The two societies include in their membership some of the best athletes of the city, some of the men holding city records. The teams will compete for a very handsome banner in the colors of the two societies and properly inscribed. There will be a handsome gold medal for the best all-round athlete, but no other prizes will be given, the competition being for points only.

As the meet is being given under the rules of the Amateur Athletic Union, which does not tolerate professionalism, the societies were obliged to throw out the ten mile open handicap bicycle race, for which prizes were to have been given.

The events will be run in the fol-

John Bright, a farmer near Peterson, Adams county, was kicked in the abdomen by a vicious horse Wednesday evening and may not recover. He is 62 years of age.

James Ryland, a well known farmer north of Avilla, was found dead in his bed Thursday morning. He had not complained of illness, and his death was unexpected.

OBITUARY - JAMES RYLAND

James Ryland was born in eastern Ohio March 31, 1820 and died at his home in Allen township, Noble County, Indiana, July 24, 1902, aged 82 years, 3 months and 23 days. His father died when he was four years old, leaving his mother in poor circumstances and unable to give him any education, his total schooling consisting of thirty days. He educated himself later sufficiently to read the Bible, which was his only book. He often spoke of his grandmother who taught him when a child to nightly kneel at her side and pray. The descent of his grandmother is unknown but his grandfather was a German. He was married at the age of twenty-one to Charlotte Bond (who yet survives) in Portage, now Summit, County, Ohio.

Six children were born to this union, five sons and one daughter, of whom four sons survive him. He emigrated to the wilds of Noble County, Indiana in October 1847, and settled and remained on the same farm until his decease. At the age of eighteen he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, which relationship he never severed. He commenced life with no help but his own energy and industry. He succeeded well, educated his children, left them a legacy of sterling honesty, integrity and honor. His word was always as good as his bond. No one ever heard him profane or falsify. Among his many prominent characteristics his humaneness was striking. He would never turn anyone away from his home hungry or in need of a resting place. He has been known to entertain strangers overnight and then to remain up all night in order to guard his home from being plundered. If he found a tramp in an outbuilding he would bring him in and entertain him. He would never willingly permit a stranger to depart on Sunday. Were any of his neighbors in need at any time, they would find his best at their service. Another characteristic was his scrupulousness. He was close in his dealings, but exact and honest. On one occasion a merchant took his word as to the number of bushels in a load of corn, and was surprised later to receive money which a subsequent measurement of his wagon by Mr. Ryland showed to be due. This was the man. His departing leaves the world poorer, but his character abides a true inspiration and blessing.

The funeral was held at Mount Pleasant church on Saturday afternoon, July 26. It was conducted by the Rev. M. M. Magor, of Kendallville M.E. church, assisted by the Lutheran church choir. The interment was at Mount Pleasant.

AMUSEMENTS

By W. J. Galvin.

Our Own" Nancy Boyer returned the Faurot Opera house yester- afternoon, and the welcome she ived at the hands of a packed se must have assured her that is just as popular as ever with theatre goers in this city. The ience in the afternoon was made mostly of ladies who accept- every opportunity to applaud Miss Boyer in spirit with happy feeling splendidly porred the part of Anna, the "Little y Lady" the title role of the :.

he company she has supporting this spring is as strong as ever, 1 but very little change. The same ular r:hur Chatterton is playing osite her; Henry Testa remains e heavy" and only the absence of ck" Warburton is noticeable from "line-up" of the company that ral years ago laid the foundation future and repeated successes in ia.

his year Miss Boyer has improved e a little. The years of experthe story being very entertaining and is heartily enjoyed good support being given the little Miss, by the officer and grandmother, enough comedy being introduced to take away the seriousness of the plot of the sketch. Geo. Yeoman "The German Jester" keeps every one in laughing mood while he is on the stage not a dull moment, as he hands out laugh after laugh, his talk on the topics of the day being teeming with bright comedy, Thatcher and Moore made themselves very popular with the audiences sending the show off with a dash, the Lyricscope and a most interesting picture, completing a strong show.

Orpheum Theatre.

There is a good show at the Orpheum this week, every act being just about as good as the best in its particular line.

Leah B. Stanley, singing comedienne, opens the show, with a really good act.

Billy Falls, "The Assassin of Sorrow," has a singing and talking act that scored a big hit.

Rogers and Evans sing and talk in an amusing manner, their make-up at the beginning causing rather a surprise to the audience.

The Directors today applied to the County Commissioners to put a 100 bbl. tank on the top of the Infirmary building for receiving the spring water waste from the new reseevoir, so as to keep it seperate from the soft water. The reservoir gives an ample supply of water, and it has been decided that the present pumps will suffice for the present.

There is also need of a new laundry at the Infirmary, the place in the basement, set apart for the work being entirely unsuited. The work is done in an outside building, which in the winter season, is too cold even for a horse stable.

Steps are being taken for the improvement of the ventilation of the new asylum building, as suggested by the TIMES in a late description of the institution. §

Who Will Be Lieutenant?

Speculation is rife among the members of the police force as to who will wear the lieutenant's uniform, reported by the Police Committee of Council last night as ordered. The appointment of a lieutenant was ordered some time ago, but for some reason has been hanging fire. Officer Corcoran is the oldest man on the force, and the general supposition is that he will receive the appointment. Officer Lehman says the contest lies entirely between him tence, and disappeared down the alley. On investigation it was found that they had broken the glass near the catch on the window, run their hand through and turned it. They then raised the window and had evidently only just gotten in when discovered. They had not taken anything.

A SIMILAR CASE.

Two fellows had broken the glass in the rear window of Appleton's grocery, on South Pine street, and were just in the act of raising the window, about 9:30 last night, when they were discovered by a neighbor, who shouted for Appleton and scared them away.

The attempt to enter was made within half an hour after the store was closed. The men are described as being one tall, the other short, and both wearing overcoats.

OIL AND GAS.

The Eastern oil market closed at 78¼c.

Buckeye Pipe Line runs yesterday, 51,647.15 bbls.

The Niagara Oil Company's Sampsell No. 1, Perry township, is estimated as a 26-barrel well.

The Ohio Oil Company's Jacobs No. 1, St. Marys township, Auglaize county, is a dry hole.

John E. Richie et al., vs. Daniel J. Fosnaught, attachment. Continued, under a former order of court.

W. W. Huber vs. Peter Greding et al., damages, settled at defendant's cost.

John E. Richie et al. vs the city of Lima, injunction. Settled and dismissed at the cost of the city.

John Greenawalt vs. Amerius Miesse, injunction. Hearing this afternoon.

Owing to a settlement of a number of cases, the special jury that had been summoned was not needed, and the members were dismissed. The special session will probably adjourn tomorrow evening.

At a special session of the County Commissioners this morning Dr. Terwillinger, the County Infirmary physician requested additional ventilation at the asylum, and the Superintendent and Directors asked to have a new additional water tank built in the Infirmary. Both matters were deferred for future consideration. The Auditor was directed to notified the Dayton Work House authorities to release and discharge James Burnes, committed from Delphos. A number of contracts were also awarded, and bills allowed to the amount of $3000. This afternoon the Board went out to

Mrs. Emma Darrow,

Darrowville, Ohio.

Madam:

In response to your letter dated January 17th, received January 23rd, returned for data and again received March 6, 1911, you are advised that you fail to give the name of your mother, or the organization in which your father served.

You are, however, advised that a claim for pension as indicated above, under the general law, was rejected February 20, 1884, on the ground that the report from the records of the War Department show that Nelsom Myers deserted the service March 18, 1864. It is not shown that he ever returned to the service, neither is it shown that he is dead. No claim for pension has ever been filed by the soldier.

If the above-named claimant is your mother, she apparently has no pensionable title under any law.

Very respectfully,

Commissioner.

George received his education in the public schools and became a farmer. In addition to being considered a "substantial farmer," he was also a dealer in agricultural implements. For a time, George was a carpenter who worked ten hours a day in Macedonia. He travelled to and from work on his horse, a trip of many miles each way.[15c,125]

Politically, George had, at different times, been a Republican, a "Free-Silverite," and a "Populist." He was a member of the Knights of Macabees at Hudson, OH, and a member of the Darrow Street grange (a collective of area farmers, formed to improve their crop-selling negotiations as a large group rather than on an individual basis).*[15e]

George's wife, Emma (Appleton), was born 28 Jul 1858, Northfield, Summit, OH, the daughter of Wesley N. and Amanda (Norton) Appleton. Wesley Norton was a soldier in the Civil War and was among the missing. She died 7 Sep 1930, and was buried in Darrowville. George was also buried in Darrowville 14 years later.[13,15e]

George and Emma lived in Darrowville, Summit, OH, all their lives.[13]

Married: Emma R. Appleton, 3 Sep 1876, Darrowville, Summit Co., OH[13,15e]

GREETINGS FROM DINGLE

IRELAND

Dingle is the chief town of the peninsula, lying at the foot of a steep slope on the north side of Dingle Harbour, it is bounded on three sides by hills. Dingle was the chief port of Kerry in the old Spanish trading days and in the reign of Queen Elizabeth I was important enough to be a walled town.
